

The picture above shows a 14 input channel NDT analogue board. Each channel performed a pulse/echo function, with a 400Vpp output voltage withstanding capability, a voltage protected low noise amplifier stage, a digitally controlled logarithmic gain stage and switched active filtering. The NDT system had two of these boards to perform 28 channels of analysis.