

The picture above shows a 4 channel NDT product. The electronics on this mother board was designed to be minimal. It has a flash microcontroller, RAM, USB interface, two RS232 interfaces and a DC control DAC. The system was battery powered and so low power was important. Multiplexer and I/O boards plug into the connectors.